

Running W Therapeutic Riding Center's November 2019 Newsletter

WELCOME

Volunteer Spotlight: Kim Jacobs

Kim has been volunteering at Running W Therapeutic Riding Center since fall of 2018. She and her husband moved to Coeur d'Alene from Colorado, and when they moved she began scouting out a therapeutic riding center that she could volunteer in. We are so grateful she chose us!

Kim has volunteered in WildFreedom and therapeutic riding with kids with disabilities. Her favorite part of volunteering is relationship. She has loved connecting with other volunteers, program participants, and the horses. Thank you for all you do, Kim!

Santa's Coming!

Mark your calendars for December 18. Come between 5:30 and 6:30 for cocoa, cookies, and to make your own ornament. We will have a Running W TRC logo t-shirt for the riders in our PATH classes. Feel free to bring your families for crafts and

Gobble Gobble

Our PATH therapeutic riding classes will be on break from November 15 until the 29, with classes to resume on December 6. Have a great Thanksgiving and enjoy the time with your families!

Volunteer Appreciation Night

We had a BLAST honoring our amazing volunteers at Wednesday's Volunteer Appreciation Night. Everyone plays a different role, and it was fun for many volunteers to meet for the first time. Rustler's Roost provided an amazing meal complete with a Running W logo cupcake display! We are overwhelmed by the community and volunteer support in our programs. Thank you! You make life change happen.

Putting the FUN in Fundraiser

We are gearing up to prepare for our 2020 annual fundraiser. Mark your calendars for Saturday, May 30, 2020. But, in the meantime – help us make this the best one yet! Contact Maddy at runningwmarketing@gmail.com to be added to our Fundraiser Team. We will be meeting once a month until March (then, twice a month) to brainstorm and plan.
